NUMBER 56.

OFFICE—No. 104 King street, over
S. ne's (formerly French's) Book Store.

NEWS BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

J. A. Cresswell has been nominated by the Republican Caucus of the Maryland Legislature for United States Senator, by a vote of 43 to 22 for all others. The election takes place to day.

Wm. H. Kaywood, of the Confederate signal corps, a native of Washington, D. C., was drowned recently in the Potomac river at Matthias' Point, while engaged in the prosecution of his occupation.

The ice in the Susquehanna is gorged below Havre de Grace, and travel is still obstructed. But the present weather must soon remove the difficulty. Considerable damage has been done along the banks of the river.

The Richmond Enquirer says that "the Legislature at Richmond, has passed resolutions expressing the sentiments of the General Assembly in regard to the execution, by the authorities of the U. S., of Captain John Y. Beall, recommending the adoption of such steps as may be necessary in retaliation for the same offence."

General Hancock has suspended all communication between the Maryland and Virginia shores of the Upper Potomac, and has strongly picketed the banks of the river.

The London correspondent of the New York News continues to reiterate his old story of a secret treaty between France and the South.

The New York papers continue to make very severe comments upon the scene in the Senate Chamber, on Inauguration day. Their statements relative to what occurred, have not been contradicted in any quarter that we have seen.

There was a negro riot at Bridgeport, Ohio, on the 5th inst. The whites repulsed the negroes finally.

Cornwall, tried in Washington, for abstracting portions of U. S. Treasury notes, has been found guilty.

The Washington Chronicle says that a late order of Gen. Ord, in relation to the Contrabands and Freedmen of the Peninsula, "has been suspended by the War Department." It is called in the Chronicle, "an extraordinary order." It directed the enrollment of negroes as soldiers, teamsters, or laborers; directed that they should be put to work; remitted their taxes, &c., &c.

The Richmond Enquirer says that gifts in bonds, coin, silver plate, provisions, &c., are being made in the South to the Confederate government. It says, "a capitalist subscribed $200,000 in currency, on condition that twenty four other persons shall make a like donation. This will be accepted, and the five million dollars will be employed in paying off Lee's army."

One hundred and twenty Confederate deserters, arrived in Washington, yesterday, from City Point.
